

DocuMind scanned sample page.

The project budget was approved by the board in March.

The final report is due on the first of June.

This page is an image with no text layer, so it must be read by optical character recognition.